THE QUICK LAW GROUP OPENS WINTER PARK LOCATION

The opening of a new office in Winter Park, Florida is the latest edition to the Jacksonville based law firm specializing in divorce and family law for women. This will be the firm's third location. After opening their St. Augustine location and hiring two new attorneys in the Jacksonville office, The Quick Law Group is pleased to announce their expansion into Winter Park.

The Quick Law Group announced that its existing clients and other related opportunities, led to the decision to expand the firm's presence in Florida. The expansion of the law firm into Winter Park, Florida will allow for the firm to better serve and more efficiently handle their case load as the firm continues to grow.

"Strong client relationships and our commitment to providing the highest quality service are driving the firm's growth," Heather Quick, CEO and founder of The Quick Law Group stated. "Our expansion strategy is driven by what is in the best interest for our clients, and they have shown overwhelming support. Our experience and reputation will allow us to capitalize on additional opportunities in the Orlando market."

Michelle Kane, has been named Managing Attorney for the Winter Park office by The Quick Law Group. Ms. Kane has owned and operated her own family law boutique firm in Winter Park for the past 14 years. Her practice focuses on all matters of family law with an emphasis on high asset divorce, alimony, paternity and custody issues.

"Michelle is an asset to The Quick Law Group team. She has a proven record of success in Florida courts," said Quick. "In addition, Michelle has been effective at expanding our firm's Winter Park client base and I have every confidence that she will be even more successful in growing our new location by utilizing the firm's support and resources."

The Quick Law Group has dedicated their practice to family law since opening their first location in Jacksonville, FL. The firm offers the resources and legal staff to assist women in high asset divorce, alimony, child custody, paternity, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, domestic violence and other related family law matters. As a result, the firm has been recognized as the Best-Gender Focused Family Law Boutique-Southern USA by Acquisition International and is ranked number 24 on the Law Firm 500 Honorees List of the top 100 fastest growing firms in America. CEO Heather Quick has also been named to the Florida "Super Lawyers" list and was honored by Jacksonville Business Journal as an Ultimate Attorney.
